

The Chocolate War, Chapters 36-38

1. What was the unexpected twist of the raffle tickets?
2. What was the underlying premise about human nature that guaranteed the sales of the tickets?
3. How many marbles would Archie have to draw from the black box?
4. That Archie feigned a cool attitude was a cover up for what emotion?
5. The sight of the black box stunned the gathering into a silence more deep than before. How would Archie return the audience of boys to their mob-like applause, impatient shoutings, and catcalls?
6. Why did Goober protest he fight?
7. Who threw the first punch in the fight?
8. What did the second raffle ticket tell Janza to do?
9. What was Jerry's reaction to Janza's punches?
- 10.. Who first realized that Brother Jacques was the cause of the power failure?